A pleading has been filed in this Court, a copy of which has been mailed to the last known address as stated above. If the Court makes a finding of dependency, neglect or abuse based on the pleading, a case plan may be prepared through which parent(s) or custodian(s) would be required to cooperate with social services deemed necessary by the Court. Said services may include, but are not limited to, substance abuse treatment, parenting classes, and counseling. Failure by the parent(s) or custodian(s) to cooperate with the case plan services ordered by the Court could be considered a violation of a Court Order, and could jeopardize the efforts of the parent(s) or custodian(s) to have custody of the child(ren) returned, in those cases in which custody of the child(ren) has been temporarily vested in a person or agency other than the parent(s) or custodian(s).

IF THE PLEADING FILED IN THIS CASE CONTAINS A REQUEST FOR PERMANENT CUSTODY, OR IS AT SOME TIME AMENDED TO A REQUEST FOR PERMANENT CUSTODY, THE GRANTING OF PERMANENT CUSTODY BY THE COURT WOULD TAKE FROM THE PARENT(S) ALL PARENTAL RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES, AND OBLIGATIONS.

If the child(ren) in this case is(are) judged to be dependent, neglected or abused, an order of temporary custody may be issued that will cause the removal of the child(ren) from the legal custody of the parent(s) or custodian(s) until the Court terminates the temporary custody order or issues a permanent custody order. The issuance of a planned permanent living arrangement order will cause the removal of the child(ren) from the custody of the parent(s) or custodian(s) if any of the conditions listed in divisions (A)(5)(a) to (c) section 2151.353 of the Ohio Revised Code are found to exist.

Each party to this case may be entitled to legal counsel and the Court will appoint counsel to provide representation to those parties that the Court determines to be indigent. Counsel will not be appointed in allocation of Parental Rights and Responsibilities cases or Child Support cases filed on or after September 30, 2005. The Attorney Appointment Coordinator is the Court employee designated to arrange for the appointment of counsel for indigent parties and can be reached at (419) 213-6703. Hours of availability run from 1:30pm to 4:30 pm, Monday through Friday.

YOU ARE HEREBY SUMMONED TO APPEAR:

12/09/19

10:30 AM

in Court Room CR4

Juvenile Justice Center, 1801 Spielbusch Ave., Toledo, Ohio 43604

Failure to appear in Court as directed may result in the loss of custody of the child(ren), and the issuance of any other orders that the Court finds appropriate. It is possible that a warrant could be issued for your apprehension.
